SQUADRON HISTORY

The idea of another Air Cadet Squadron in the city of London was sparked by two former Air Cadet Officers: W.A. Mallet and E.H. Muzylowsky, as well as a Master Corporal in the First Battalion of The Royal Canadian Regiment, J. Bentley.

Immediately, the Provincial Chairman of the Air Cadet League was informed of the interest in starting a new Squadron. He was receptive to the idea, but he noted that the requirements of a potential new Squadron had to be met before a charter could be granted. These requirements were:

- Designation of a Sponsoring Committee;
  - Allocation of training facilities;
- Officers and Instructors had to be found; and most importantly,
  - A supply of young people had to be assured.

After considerable time and effort being spent without a Sponsoring Committee being found, the idea seemed doomed. However, at the end of May 1976, the retired Commanding Officer of 27 RC(AIR)CS, Mr. D.M.R. Hammond, was contacted for assistance. Through Major Hammond, it was hoped that a Sponsoring Committee of ex Air Force personnel could be found.

On 15 June 1976, a meeting was arranged with the Base Commander of CFB London, Colonel R.A. Allan. Colonel Allan stated at this meeting, that part of his responsibilities as Base Commander was to the Cadet movement, and he assured that training facilities would be made available.

Throughout the summer of 1976, the details were finalized and on 2 September 1976, 614 RC(AIR)CS was officially designated as The Forest City Squadron. On the 23 September, the first training night was held and the Squadron effective strength stood at 49 Cadets.

Originally, the Sponsoring Committee had wanted 617 as the number for the new squadron. This was due to the fact that several of its members were part of the original 617 Dambusters Squadron, famous for its bomber aircraft which destroyed dams during the Second World War. The number, however, was already in use, and so 614 was settled on as the next best thing.

The resulting squadron has done nothing but grow and improve since its early days, and now parades approximately 65 cadets, 4 Officers and 8 Civilian Instructors. The squadron has won numerous awards – including Top Squadron in Ontario - for the cadets and many more for the Sponsoring Committee.

If you are new this year to 614, we welcome you whole-heartedly into the 614 Family.

High Flight

Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds – and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of – wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sunlit silence. Hov'ring there
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up the long delirious, burning blue,
I've topped the windswept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, or even eagle flew –
And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod
The high untresspassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.
- Pilot Officer John Gillespie Magee

PARENT COMMITTEE

---

A 614 Sqn Parent Committee was formed again this year after a successful re-introduction in the 2005-2006 training year. It was formed to accomplish the following goals:

-  To support the squadron in achieving its goals
-  To provide parent volunteers for various events when needed
-  To operate a cadet canteen
-  To fundraise money to be used by the unit in support of cadet training

The entire committee has put in a lot of time and energy into making this a successful year for the squadron. Several fundraisers were organized so that cadets could raise money toward their March Break Trip, to help defray the costs of bussing for training weekends, and to help subsidize the cost of the Annual Banquet.

The committee is made up of the following members:

Connie Naftel
Nancy Haley

The Commanding Officer, Staff, Sponsors and Cadets would like to thank the 614 Squadron Parent Committee 2019-2020 for all of their help this past training year.

DEVORATE OMNES

If you are interested in joining the committee, please contact either the SSC Chairperson or the Commanding Officer.
